

Cindy Abner (left), Finance Specialist, City of Montgomery, Stephen Smookler, Executive Director, Wesley Community Services and Sharon Savitt, Finance Specialist, City of Montgomery.

Wesley Community Services shares in the fun at the City of Montgomery's "My Dog's Got Talent Show"

Wesley Community Services, a non-profit organization that provides Meals-On-Wheels to Cincinnati area seniors, showcased its Pet Portions and PetKare programs at the City of Montgomery's "My Dog's Got Talent Show" held Saturday, September 26th in Montgomery Park. Participants were encouraged to make donations of either pet food or money to Wesley Community Services to support Wesleys' programs helping senior client pets. "Our Pet Portions and PetKare programs aim to provide our Meals-On-Wheels clients with free high-nutrition pet food and veterinary services for their cats and dogs," said Stephen Smookler, Executive Director, Wesley Community Services.

Dr. Gary Clemons, Veterinarian of the Milford Animal Hospital and host of Pet Talk, a weekly call in radio program on 55 WKRC AM radio was the master of ceremony. The first time event was sponsored by Nutro Products, Puppywood Pet Resort, Pet People, and Little Red Gift Shop .

A special thanks goes out to the individuals who made this event possible and to the donors for their generosity and kindness.