

Wesley Community Services Home Care Program held its semi-annual 4 hour homemaker training session on Jan 13. The training focused on fall prevention for seniors and assessing their homes for the risk of falls. All homemakers attended this training event held in the Wesley Community Services administrative offices.