Meals-On-Wheels Seniors Receive 850 festive Easter Egg Baskets from Wesley Community Services

The Meals-On-Wheels kitchen personnel at Wesley Community Services are hopping-to-it in celebration of Easter Sunday! Stacey Lewis, Meals-On-Wheels Food Services Manager, and staff are busy preparing 850 festive Easter egg baskets to be delivered to Meals-On-Wheels clients.

“I am so proud of our staff to make sure each and every one of our MOW clients is remembered on Easter. This year our clients will be happily surprised to see an Easter egg basket with candy including the likes of Hershey Chocolate Kisses, jelly beans, malted milk balls and of course, a colored hard-boiled egg,” said Stephen Smookler, Executive Director, Wesley Community Services.

The Board of Trustees of Wesley Community Services extends their best wishes for a pleasant Easter to the seniors in our care and special thanks to our Meals-On-Wheels kitchen personnel for their dedication and hard work.
